

SPECIAL ISSUE – GURUVANDAN 2025

Multidisciplinary and Multilingual National Seminar on Bhartiya Knowledge Traditions (July 10, 2025)

About Editor

Dr. Ashwin Purushottam Ranjanikar

He has been serving as Associate Professor and Head, Department of English at Shri Sant Savta Mali Gramin Mahavidyalaya, Phulambri, Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar, Maharashtra, India for the past fifteen years. A passionate student of literature, his scholarly interests encompass Colonial and Postcolonial Studies, Autobiography, Indian Writing in English, and the Bhartiya Knowledge System.

A prolific researcher and writer, Dr. Ranjanikar has authored 14 books and published 35 research papers in reputed journals. His intellectual engagement is further evidenced by the presentation of 35 scholarly papers at prestigious national and international conferences. He has successfully completed a Minor Research Project and has been the driving force behind 16 national seminars and workshops, which he convened with remarkable vision.

His academic stature is reflected in his invitations as a Resource Person at over 40 events, where his insights have inspired students, faculty, and researchers alike. For the past decade and a half, he has held key institutional responsibilities as Director of IQAC, NIRF, and UGC Committees, contributing significantly to the academic growth and quality enhancement of his institution.

A pioneer in integrating technology with pedagogy, Dr. Ranjanikar designed a MOOC Course under the OE4BW Project, endorsed by the UNESCO Chair, titled Spreading Happiness: Stress Management & Panchkoshvikas. His scholarly journey has taken him across borders—he participated in an international conference in Moscow, Russia, where he released his book My Journey to Russia: Anna Bhau Sathe. At another international conference in Malaysia, his work Discourse on The Weave of My Life: A Dalit Woman's Memoirs was published, further cementing his reputation as a global academic voice.

Beyond his institutional roles, Dr. Ranjanikar is also a founder-president of ELT@I, CSN Chapter, and proudly serves as the Brand Ambassador of the Marathwada Region for the Read India Movement of ELT@I, championing the cause of literacy and language learning.

With an enduring commitment to literature, pedagogy, and human values, Dr. Ashwin Purushottam Ranjanikar continues to illuminate the academic sphere with his scholarship, leadership, and vision.