LET'S ALL

Let's all evolve - a Utopian society
Where people feel, not distanced;
With loving bonds of togetherness
Relations grow cordially enhanced.

Let's shun - ego, jealousy, bigotry
So as to imbibe the ideas supreme;
For flourishing the humane ground
Of love, peace to a height extreme.

Let's stretch - our hands for rescue
Of wounded humanity and society;
To make them prosper and vibrant
Based on the values of top priority.

Let's become: just, upright, and true
Compassionate, never to be unkind;
Even if all hell breaks loose, causing
Severe wrecks or havoc of any kind.

Let's swim : the surging sea across

*Against the violent wind in full sway;
By corrugating or bending ourselves
As low or light as tiny plants or hay.*

*Let's pick up: rare and precious gems
From the bottom of our life and time;
With sweet - bitter mixed experiences
Poetic minds wreath a poetic rhyme.*

*Let's tranquilize the tides of human life
Overpowering all the troublesome flies;
For joy and sorrow must come and go
Through our smiles and the watery eyes.*

*Let's realize: the worth of immortal Soul
Seated as Self in the center of our heart;
Locked in the fetters of a life and a death
On God's canvas as a mortal work of art.*
