EXTINCTION

Md. Nuruddin Pier Shihab
*Lecturer, Department of English,
R. P. Shaha University, Bangladesh*
==========

A night arrived with the sound of falling of a burning asteroid from the sky.
I closed my ears when the fire started howling,
Darkness turned into brute-bright burning fly.

Whatever you say, it's a sign of an end,
The sign of an untimely one it is.
All the seconds of the Earth are now spent,
Left only some dust and ashes to miss.
